She had never thought in this way and I assume thought I was being morbid. May today become the starting point of a vigorous onward ascent into that state of peace which is awaiting you, to ask for it and get it, to seek it and to find it. Laypeople are, put simply, the vast majority of the people of God. It is a serious question. Adorations and devotion to the spiritual presence of Gurudev who is the link between us and that ancient Spirit, attaining which one goes beyond sorrow and enters into a state of immortality, Divine-consciousness. There is a great fear around it, especially when it concerns physical death.

Pastoral activity needs to bring out more clearly the fact that our relationship is no heavy-handed moral guide to self-improvement; rather it is an invitation into the bigness of life.
