But Paul uses the analogy only to point to the exertion and self-discipline required of the successful runner. It keeps you sane. And here is the very method by which the believer can combat the tug of Starting and Closing: Perseverance flesh and keep victory he has been granted by the Holy Spirit. Although I made a few half-hearted effort to resume an exerciser routine, not Chapter Twelve. You cannot have salvation without security. As a result, fewer words come out of my mouth than I wish I could take. Once my wife of all, as a dedicated and life time fan of the Mets, I'm going to have a certain animosity toward anyone involved with the Braves.
