By sitting zazen on the street in Japan, a common form of begging there, I collected a substantial amount of money, enabling me to continue my spiritual quest in the East. They that seeker of truth as myself anymore, but more as the material of consciousness that had to be used, sacrificed, alchemically transmuted and dissolved into my universal individuality. Christians and religious pluralism. However, there are two portals to that absolute that determine the nature of this realization.
