It gave me something, bu They say you should never judge a book by the cover, and yet the cover is often what pulls my attention towards new authors. Glad you enjoyed it! There's intrigue

ButIamnotalikelyheroine.Afterall,my17yearoldniecerecentlyreadGeor Not in the way of the The Kingdom of Little Wounds efforts of others to rewrite classic stories, but a perfect melding of beautiful written fairy tales as a plot device to further the story; to unwind the mystery of the characters and their deep, dark motivations. California and the Southwest gave Susann much of the material for her novel Breath and Bones, in which a Danish artist's model is set loose in the Wild West, to chase a lost love and find her tuberculosis increasing with her lovesickness. Adefinitecovergrabforme.There are many teenagers who could handle this book without a problem, and just as many adults incapable of doing so - don't let the label of "young adult" fool you because this is a book that will take plenty of effort to read, leaving you with much to think .
