JulianHawthorne.ChiamailibrisceglieKoboeinMondadori. From this reflection, Dickens encourages such rhetorical questions as: If we are prone to dreaming at night, who is to say that those inside of an asylum experience dreaming during the day? Both major and minor aspects of the era of change and upheaval through which Dickens lived are captured here with maturity, deceptive simplicity, and flashes of pure comedy.

Viewbasket. Not only that, but the vast armies of dead would overflow the hills and valleys beyond the city, and would stretch away all round it, God knows how far.
