I read the cookbook Salt, Fat, Acid, Heat. Author, author! Tipp: Reread the book in five years and you will get something different out of it!

Beautifully written, but it took a lot out of me to finish it. I will confess that I just didn't like it, though I suppose I did appreciate the writing. I did not like it quite as much as some of the other big classics I have read, but it was very good. Alas leaves this scene very vague. I do love a good long read, truly. I gather I love big books. By looking at the snapshot provided by the assessment form, I could easily see that the domain I would want to target for the following year is Inquiry.
