What if we move and there is another Great Sadness? I personally craved more substance and depth. Agnes is fine. But we don't go down to them anymore. It cannot sustain us anymore. What would it be like? Meanwhile, back in the City, all is not what it seems, and the life of every Cerulean may be in danger if Sera is not able to find a way home. She hauled herself up onto the glass shingles. Sera has heard tales about the dangerous humans who live here, and she quickly cover is so pretty. Hidden inside her was the secret she could never let anyone know—that she was incapable of love.
